Note:

- *1. The agreement signed between China and the former Yugoslavia is applicable.
- *2. The agreement signed between China and the former Czechoslovakia is applicable.
- *3. Bulgaria cancelled its passports for public affairs in 1999. At present, citizens of the People’s Republic of China who are holders of valid diplomatic or service passports are exempted from visa requirements, but holders of passports for public affairs should apply for visas.

* According to the Detailed Rules of the Memorandum of Understanding Between the Government of the People's Republic of China and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland on the Facilitation of Legal Travel and Cooperation to Combat Illegal Immigration effective since 25 October 2007, the contacting parties shall exempt visa requirements for all diplomatic passport holders and some service passport holders.

* Exemption of visa requirements does not mean permission to stay and reside in the other contracting country for an indefinite period of time. According to the agreements, holders of valid specified passports are permitted to stay for less than 30 days upon entry into the other contracting country. If a passport holder intends to stay for over 30 days, he or she should go through residence formalities with the local authorities according to relevant regulations as soon as possible.
